M.M. gazetted 22 Dec. 1939. No citation is available but the Regimental History states that Smith won his M.M. for gallantry at Beit Lid, Palestine in mid-October 1939. Capt. (now Maj.-Gen.) David Lloyd Owen was commanding a platoon in "A" Coy., 2nd Bn., and Smith was his runner. A copy is available of Gen. Lloyd Owen's letter to me in which he describes the action at Beit Lid and how Smith charged some Arab rebels under fire and captured the village.

On 4 Jan. 1940 the Div. Cmdr. presented the ribbon of the M.M. to Smith.

In December 1940, Capt. Lloyd Owen led a patrol at Bardia to capture an Italian prisoner. In the course of the evening, Smith was lost. He returned later, having escaped from the Italians. His capture was the cause of a court of inquiry. The incident is described in Lloyd Owen's book "The Desert My Dwelling Place", from which the relevant passage is available.

Sold with the medal is a photograph of Smith taken in Palestine in 1939.

Bar to M.C. gazetted 11 Jan. 1919: "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. During an attack, when the Battalion was held up under heavy fire, he discovered that he was the only unwounded officer left. ∴ Another 2 Lt. in 2/Bn. was the poet Wilfred Owen. Sold with excerpt from John Stallworthy's biography of Wilfred Owen which describes the action at Magny La Fosse and lists Johnson among those officers wounded on that day.

Military Cross gazetted 15 Feb. 1919 and 30 Jul. 1919: "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in the attack on the Fon-Somme Line on 1 and 2 October 1918, in charge of a company. He maintained the direction of his company in a praiseworthy manner under great difficulties and, after the initial attack, re-organised his men and beat off a heavy counter-attack. His calm bearing and personal example contributed much to the success of the operation and inspired all ranks with the greatest confidence.

∴ M.M. L.G. 13.3.18. D.C.M. L.G. 16.1.19. Sold with letter from Regt. H.Q. The Prince of Wales' Own Regt. of Yorkshire which suggests that Bevens won his M.M. in the Battle of Cambrai.

For conspicuous gallantry during the attack on Havrincourt between 12 and 14 September 1918, as battalion runners. They worked continuously under very heavy shell and machine-gun fire; and there is no doubt that, had it not been for the courage of these two men, several very important orders would never have reached the front line".

- 365 Four to E. Hall: D.C.M. Geo. V (Pte. 1/E. Kent Regt.), engraved on rev. Hooge Aug. 1915; 1914 Star with copy bar (Pte. 1/E. Kent R.); B.W.M., Vict. (Pte. E. Kent R.). Very fine.

L.G. 11.3.1916.

"For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He remained alone in the crater when his fellow stretcher bearer was killed and attended on the wounded regardless of his own personal safety. He had continually to run over open ground under heavy fire. His coolness and skill in rendering first aid and in digging out buried men was admirable".

3

"For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When all his officers were wounded he took command of his company under very heavy fire, kept them together and consolidated the position, keeping his Bn. Commander informed by frequent and accurate messages. He displayed very great gallantry and resource throughout the day".

- 368 D.C.M. Geo. VI (7885179 A.Sjt. S. Burrage, R. Tank R.); 1939/45, Africa, F. & G. Stars; Defence and War Medals. Extremely fine.

6

D.C.M. gazetted 19 Mar. 1942: "At Sidi Rezegh on 23 November 1941, he showed the greatest coolness and courage during most difficult circumstances. As a tank commander, he held his fire until the last moment and knocked out two enemy tanks. When his tank was finally put out of action and his crew killed, he acted magnificently under heavy fire, evacuating wounded men and forming a small first-aid post himself. Throughout this action he caused many casualties to the enemy and was instrumental in saving the lives of many wounded, and his personal example of outstanding calmness and bravery under fire was an inspiration to all". Copy of original citation signed by Major Mitford, OC 6RTR, General Gott, OC 7 Armd. Div., and General Ritchie, C-in-C 8th Army.

This incident is mentioned in "With Pennants Flying" by David Masters and the text of the relevant passage is available.

Sold wth copies of letters from two soldiers who know Burrage, one stating that he was recommended by the Rifle Brigade for a V.C. for this action, and the other confirming that he was posted to 1 RTR in 1945 in Germany.

- 369 I.D.S.M. Geo. VI (5969 A. Seaman, R.I.N.), with 1939/45 & Burma Stars; Def. & War; Pakistan Independence, first medal rather worn, others fine. Five to Lt. J. Parker, R.N.R., 1914/15, B.W.M., Vic., Merc. Marine, Def. Four to C. Norman, R.M.L.I., 1914/15, B.W.M., Vic., with mention, Italian bronze War Cross (not entitled to last?), very fine.

- 371 M.M. Geo. VI (6896157 Sgt. E. W. A. Osborn, K.R.R.C.); 1939/45, Africa with 8th Army bar; Italy, F. & G. Stars; War Medal. Extremely fine.

6

L.G. 19.10.1944.

"On the evening of 10 Jul. 44 Sgt. Osborn's Company was operating in the area of Chateau de Fontaine, south of the River Odon.

The Company were formed up preparatory to moving when a heavy concentration of enemy shell fire came down on the area.

Sgt. Osborn, who was taking cover beside a carrier, saw a nearby Rifleman hit. Realising he was badly wounded and must have urgent medical attention, he left the cover of his vehicle, ran out into the shell fire, picked up the Rifleman and started to carry him to the ambulance car about 250 yards away. He himself was hit twice on the way across but he kept on and got the Rifleman safely to the ambulance. Only when he had seen the wounded man safely onto a stretcher did he cease his efforts when he collapsed from his own wounds.

The Officer who saw this says that the concentration of fire was so heavy at the time that it was a miracle Sgt. Osborn was not killed at once, and that his fearless action undoubtedly saved the life of the wounded Rifleman.

The complete disregard for his own safety shown by this N.C.O. and his prompt action was a great example".

Sadly, Osborn died two days later of his wounds received in the action.

Soed with the medals are letters from Regimental H.Q. The Royal Greenjackets, providing the history of the 9th and 2nd Bns. and a form from the Army Records Centre, confirming Osborn's service details and his entitlement to the medals and clasps which form the group.

- 372 M.M. Geo. VI (938615 L./Bmbr. W. D. Warne, R.A.); 1939/45 Star; Defence and War Medals. Extremely fine.

4

Warne's M.M. was gazetted on 16 Aug. 1940 and no citation is available. The War Diary of 24 Field Regiment (copies of relevant entries available) describes the actions at Wormhout and Ledringhen on 28 May 1940, when the Regiment supported the withdrawal of the 5th Glosters, the Warwicks and the Worcesters. They were fighting S.S. troops, who murdered 70 prisoners taken at Wormhout—mostly Worcesters. The withdrawal from Ledringhen is described in "Gallant Deeds of the War" (copy available), in which the gallantry of 5th Glosters is recorded. The War Diary confirms that Warne was with the O.P. Party with the Glosters at Ledringhen and that they fought their way out with the infantry. The diary wrongly states that Warne was killed and that he was awarded a posthumous M.M. Warne was, in fact, wounded and captured. He must have been seriously wounded since he was repatriated by the Germans in October 1943 and discharged from the Army in April 1944.

- 373 Two: China 1842 (Joseph Shreeves, 49th Regiment Foot); LS & GC, Victoria (1265 Pte. Joseph Shreeves, 49th Foot June 1858), engraved in large serif capitals. Good fine/very fine.

SALE CATALOGUES

On the average we issue twelve or more Coin Catalogues and three Naval & Military Medal Catalogues each year, some of which are usually of Sales of important Collections.

CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Sale Catalogues, frequently illustrated, are normally posted to Subscribers about three weeks prior to the date of Sale.

Lists of "Prices Bid" are issued after each Sale, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to value. The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading. The Lists of "Prices Bid" will probably be enclosed in a following Sale Catalogue.

AIR MAIL POSTAGE

To allow subscribers resident outside Europe time to submit Postal Bids, Sale Catalogues will, if desired, be sent by Air Mail. Air Mail postage is not, however, included in the Subscription Rate and the cost must be borne by the Subscriber. In such cases a deposit against the cost is required.
